

Explore, play and relax – even go for a climb. Find your wild side at Bluestone this spring.

Spring has sprung at Bluestone and there's no better time to find your wild side exploring our 500 acres of free range fun.

It's not just the diverse wildlife, flora or fauna that's getting excited as the sap continues to rise in our rich and diverse countryside and woodland.

Crammed full of gentle walks, exhilarating activities and sheer beauty for all to enjoy, there's an adventure for everyone out there.

We've just launched another great activity for all to enjoy – our 40ft high rock climbing wall in the all-weather Adventure Centre.

Providing a safe but adrenalin-charged opportunity to find your wild side, embark on a route up the indoor rock wall to reach the top. Challenge friends and family to this great adventure.

And if that's not enough, head over to the the Big Four – The Drop, The Swing, the Sky Trail and The Wall for even more free range fun.

Relax and unwind

If you're after a bit of pampering, The Well Spa offers sanctuary away from the hustle and bustle of day-to-day life.

Its steam rooms and saunas and a wide array of ESPA spa treatments will help relax or invigorate you. Why not sample a snack or drink in The Olive Tree restaurant within the spa. Perfect to catch up with friends and family.

Why not try The Smithy?

Back by popular demand is The Smithy restaurant at The Yard.

This great restaurant offers a taste of Pembrokeshire and West Wales. Our chefs provide a range of delicious meals using locally sourced ingredients and produce wherever possible.

Or how about dining out in style at the Carreg Las (above The Tafarn pub). Our bistro provides a great place to end a fun packed day in style with family or friends with a menu to suit all tastes.
